An isolated individual may surmount the prejudices of religion, of his country, or of his race, and if this individual is a king he may effect surprising changes in society; but a whole people cannot rise, as it were, above. It takes two sides to lie; The liar and the believer.
Wealthy individuals are still to be met with, but they no longer constitute a large part of the population. There are a lot of wealthy, successful Americans who agree with me – because they want to give something. Their DFA-Link program for example, is designed to help individuals in local communities connect with each other and organize around issues and I can tell you from working with them for the last few months, they – not Moveon – are the future, if there is a future, of Internet organizing.
