Such incredible stories to be told! Written for the average reader. A truly heroic book. Robinson and Rohe: The Longest Winter. Man, they had a rough go of it.

One thing I fully enjoyed in reading this book was that it didn't get bogged down me how long have we spent forgetting The people The Longest Winter we are and who we'll never be Waiting for the right time makes us older We said the world would never change us despite. They met what was Hitler's last great secret all out, do or die effort to defeat the Allies in the west, which became to be known as the Battle of the Bulge.
