Verne's depiction of different cultures includes stereotypes, of course, but he goes out of his way to present a variety of individuals in each culture. He called it his biggest mistake and felt terribly responsible for the outcome. Shockingly enough, I still remembered the ending 20 years later.

The dust cover is worn and torn in some places but it promises to keep the dust off.

Certainly an Englishman it was more doubtful whether Phileas Fogg was a Londoner. This charming Beatrix Potter story about the tidiest mouse will warm your heart!
