Starting with an unexpected stance on the universally reviled practice of foot binding-the book reclaims it as a vital component of Chinese women's cultural heritage- Aching unravels, in a good way, into the long continuum of Chinese culture. Wang Ping. Cover Download Save.

Because the author is also a poet and a novelist, her literary gifts are everywhere. It is a real good book, and I recommend women with Chinese ancestors to read it. I have also read that there is a fictional book about this subject that is much better Snow Flower and the Secret Fan by Lisa See which I will probably download on my Kindle.
