The story was very heart-felt and easy to identify. All that Lindsay and the SFPD can figure out is that Loman's greed -- for riches, for bloodshed, for attention -- is limitless. But Christmas is a time of miracles. Todd McCray, a developmentally challenged young man who still lives with his parents, hears on the radio that the local animal shelter is looking for families who would be willing to offer temporary foster homes to their animals over the holidays. The author had a previous book about a Dog Named Christmas, and we are reunited with this now elderly dog. There are no discussion topics on this book .

HankFisherCarrieRuscheinskyDec18, Mary rated it really liked it Shelves: story sounds like it could have been based on a true story, overall, a sweet and sometimes funny Christmas story!
